A SEACOR Company

LINK provides a fully integrated service across all aspects of BS25999 which includes access to Business Continuity Institute (BCI) approved courses.

From initial reviews and discussion through detailed Business Impact Analysis and procedure writing to simulation and live testing, LINK has the experience and knowledge to help you protect your organisation.

Our philosophy is simple; we put people at the heart of the arrangements. Plans, facilities and systems are important but ultimately it's the people that make it work.

From the newest employee to the most experienced executive, everyone plays a major part in delivering an effective response.

With global experience and clients across many sectors of industry LINK provides tailored solutions using tried and tested techniques.
